Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of '54, realizing that our school days are over and that we have certain possessions which we must leave behind, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

To Mrs. Parker and the entire faculty, we leave our thanks for their patience and understanding.

I, Anne Beam will my title best dressed to Lessy Prue Sain.

To Doris Leonhardt I, Nadean Houser, will my title cutest.

I, Susie Newton, will to Beth Beam my title best all round.

I, Kay Brendel, will to Jean Canipe my title prettiest girl.

To Sara Warlick I, Peggy Houser, will my title most dignified.

I, Jimmy Houser, will to Larry Sain my title most handsome.

To Kathryn Miller I, Carlean Houser, will my title most athletic.

I, Flora Craig, will my position as editor of the Babbling Brook to Eulala Sain.

To Bob Craig I, Harold Craig, will my title most athletic.

I, Milton Houser, will my title most influential to Clyde Taylor.

To Junior King I, Ruby Lee King, will my position as bus driver.

I, Jane Leonhardt will my position as chief-cheerleader to Lynda Bess.

I, Bud Smith, will my title best dressed to Henry Stewart.

I, Nellie Jane Mitchem, will my title best sport to Joanna Leonhardt.

I, Barbara McSwain, will my title most capable to Shirley McSwain.

To Janice Bumgarner I, Valeria Ann Hoyle, will my title friendliest.

I, Nellie Sue Davis will my title most ladylike to Peggy Boyles.

I, Alton Heavner, will my title cutest to anyone who will have it.

I, Dean Brackett, will my mischievous ways to Junior Willis.

To Sonny Towery I, Carrol Bingham, will my title best sport.

I, Jamie Powell, will my title most popular to whoever deserves it.

To Gene Lingerfelt I, Charles Boyles will my title wittiest.

I, W. A. Wellmon, will my title best all round to James Wise.

To, Carrol Miller I, Harold Hull, will my title quietest.

I, Don Sain, will my title most likely to succeed to Junior Willis.

To Faydene Cook I, Helen Richard, will my title quietest.

I, Betty Mooney, will my title wittiest to Shirley Goodman.

To Gene Lingerfelt I, Charles Davis, will my title most gentleman-like.

I, Ella Jane Lovelace will my title most artistic to Nancy Rainey.

To Annie Clyde Warlick I, Sue Auton will my title most likely to succeed.

I, Wyatt Dellinger, will my title most dependable to James Wise.

This being the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1954, we do hereby appoint our home room teacher, Mrs. Reid Parker, as the sole executor of this document.

The Class Picture

I hesitated when I was asked to prepare this picture of the class of 1954 for your inspection. I was not an artist, and everybody knew it.

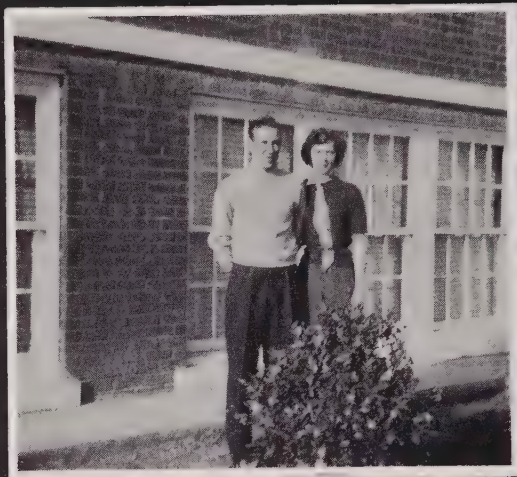

But, as it seems my fate to be expected to hold the mirror up before these thirty-one boys and girls who have been my classmates, I can only paint them in such words as appear to me to express them as I see them. This, then, dear friends is the Class of 1954, as I see it today,

The Class of 1954 is made up of thirty-one members--eighteen girls and thirteen boys. Taken altogether as the one in body that we are supposed to be in spirit, we make up an individual of sufficient age to know a great deal. Our hand is certainly large enough to get a good firm grasp upon the affairs of the world, as well as upon our own individual concerns. Too, our foot should be of sufficient size to gain a foothold upon the world's battleground.

This is the Class of 1954 in her big moments. Then even her Class Picture has to be taken on the installment plan. But we have not at all such a mighty sense of average capacity, and Mrs. Parker assures us we have a splendid capacity for averages. We have been investigating this line, too, but will not bore you with a recital of the resultant statistics.

We are accomplished in all things. We have often proved to you how well we can sing, dance, read, recite, and perform in many entertaining ways before the public. We have all proven our prowess in athletics, and have won many honors for our class and school. We have within our ranks, future poets, musicians, actresses, preachers, statesmen, philosophers, professors, judges, lecturers, physicians, authors, artists, warriors, and one United States president. Do not ask me to specify the which or the who. Ask me thirty years from now, and perhaps I may be better able to say; for, of course, they are still in a state of partial development, and while I can tell you what they are now, "it doth not yet appear what they SHALL be."

In the heart of North Carolina
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our dear Old North Brook
Conquer and prevail,
May this ever be our watch ward
As the years go by.
Hail to the our Alma Mater,
Dear Old North Brook hail.
When we from the halls have parted
And life's battle is on,
Thy great spirit shall inspire us,
Till eternal dawn.

Are you proud of your school?
Yea man.
Are you proud of your team?
Yea man.
Give a yell for your school,
And a yell for your team.
Because North Brook High School's on the beam.
